Open Clouds for Research Environments (OCRE) - Securely develop and deploy solutions to Microsoft Azure with the Bechtle cloud.

The Bechtle & AZURE OCRE cloud promise:

- Security: Leverage Azure to easily bolster your security status without high costs so that you can quickly identify threats and protect yourself.
- Affordable: Azure is up to five times cheaper than comparable cloud solutions. Make savings on existing licences and benefit from extended security updates when migrating to Azure.
- Compliance and data protection: Benefit from a team of experts and proactive compliance. Data protection always comes first.
- Global cloud provider: Microsoft offers you more global regions than any other cloud provider. You benefit from advice and access to IaaS, PaaS and SaaS technologies.
- Trusted cloud service: Organisations around the world value Microsoft Azure's most trusted cloud service for enterprise and hybrid infrastructures including 95% of all Fortune 500 companies.
- Individual hybrid solutions: Azure enables the seamless operation of hybrid solutions that fit right in to what you are doing.

Bechtle & Microsoft – A long and strong partnership

Bechtle and Microsoft can look back on a long and successful partnership. Together we develop solutions that make the difference.

Bechtle has 12 Microsoft Gold Partner statuses in all areas with all 70 subsidiaries selling modern workplace and Azure products to some 80,000 customers. More than 600 of our consultants and sales specialists have been trained in Azure and Microsoft 365 to date, and more than 1,700 Microsoft certifications have been gained.

As a new Azure Expert MSP, Bechtle counts as one of Microsoft's strongest global partners in the implementation of digital transformation projects of the companies' mutual customers. To achieve the status of Azure Expert MSP, businesses must not only be a Gold Cloud platform partner, but also undergo an independent audit to confirm technical and organization skills as well as demonstrate successfully implemented and operated customer environments. Bechtle offers a dedicated portfolio of Professional and Managed Services that spans the entire lifecycle of cloud services running on the Azure platform.
